

From Crisis to Cure: Revitalizing America's Healthcare System

Geisinger has invited some of the greatest minds in healthcare and other related disciplines to participate in an interactive conversation about the future of health in America. The invitation-only event, held Nov. 8, 9 and 10 on the Danville, Pennsylvania campus of Geisinger Medical Center, brings together a panel of the nation's leading experts on policy, patient experience, wellness and technology.

.....

Ezekiel J. Emanuel, MD, PhD

Vice provost for global initiatives, Diane v.S. Levy and Robert M. Levy University professor and chair of the Department of Medical Ethics and Health Policy at the University of Pennsylvania

Dr. Emanuel was the founding chair of the Department of Bioethics at the National Institutes of Health until August of 2011. He recently served as a special advisor on health policy to the director of the Office of Management and Budget and National Economic Council.

Dr. Emanuel received his MD from Harvard Medical School and his PhD in political philosophy from Harvard University and has published widely on health care reform, research ethics and end of life care. His most recent book, Reinventing American Health Care, examines the history of the U.S. health care system, the Affordable Care Act, and health care predictions for the future. Its sequel, Prescription for the Future, was published in June 2017. Dr. Emanuel also serves as a venture partner at Oak HC/FT in addition to serving as contributor for the New York Times and Fox News.

